INDIA GLITTERS AT GOLD COAST

Gold Coast 2018
XXI Commonwealth Games
QUEENSLAND

Vidhanshu Kumar

"Sports are 90 percent mental, 10 percent physical," legendary baseball player Yogi Berra once quipped. Berra had hit the nail on its head and stoked fire to a raging debate: How much of sports is physical and how much of it is mental? Coaches, sports scientists and experts are drawing close to a conclusion that as the game becomes tougher and reaches the highest competitive level, achieving success becomes a more mental than physical effort.

What makes Kidambi Srikanth a better badminton player than most others? Or what makes Virat Kohli a better cricketer than most others? In terms of talent, only freak geniuses like Usain Bolt are so different from others. It is the mental capacity to work longer, never lose hope, play intelligently, push the limits etc. that separates a champion from the also-rans. Sports is about breaking barriers, more mental than physical.

It was one cold afternoon in Manchester when the Indian women hockey team broke a barrier. Facing England in the final of the Manchester Commonwealth Games in 2002, Indian girls beat England for the first time in many decades to win the gold medal. A barrier was breached. Manchester turned out to be India's best ever performance at CWG with 30 gold medals. The success also reflected, albeit on a smaller scale, at the corresponding Asian Games and the Olympics. Manchester brought belief that Indians could win at multi-discipline events.

The 2018 Commonwealth Games at Gold Coast has also broken another barrier. In terms of medals it may not be the best, but it actually is India's best ever performance at Commonwealth Games.

Gold Coast painted in tri-colour

First, let us have a look at India's better performances at CWG Manchester (2002) was a watershed event for India as the country got 69 medals in total with 30 gold medals, 22 silver medals and 17 bronze medals.

The highest medals tally was achieved in 2010 when India hosted the Games at Delhi. The Indian contingent won 38 gold medals, 27 silver medals and 36 bronze medals taking the tally to 101 medals.

Compared to that in Gold Coast, Indian athletes won 66 medals with 26 Gold medals and 20 each silver and bronze medals.

One may argue that statistically this isn't the best then why this claim?

Mark Twain once quipped, "Most people use statistics like a drunken man uses a lamp post; more for support than illumination." Yes, numbers don't lie, but to get the real picture one has to go beyond mere figures.

India's story at Gold Coast was dipped in heavy metal. Why this performance matters more than previous good shows is because of the number of disciplines in which India won medals.

In Manchester, India got 30 gold medals in only 5 disciplines of shooting, weightlifting, wrestling, boxing and hockey. In contrast, India won in seven disciplines in Gold Coast—shooting, weightlifting, wrestling, boxing, table-tennis, badminton and athletics.

Also some of the events in which India won medals in Manchester have been discontinued in world games now. For example, medals in pair events in shooting are not awarded any more. Similarly, in weightlifting a lot of medal categories have been abolished. India won 25 gold medals just in shooting and weightlifting in Manchester, bulk of those in categories that are discontinued ever since.

In Gold Coast, Indian sports persons won

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES IN COMMERCE STREAM

Vijay Prakash Srivastava

Management courses run by good institutions are in great demand today. As a discipline of study, management courses came to our country a bit late and mostly we copied it from western countries in the beginning. However, many of the Management topics were covered under study of Commerce in our country. Commerce has been a popular stream of education in the country and in many ways is the first among professional courses available. As the economy is expanding and volume of business keeps multiplying, study of commerce has become more promising. Even when a degree in engineering or technology is a most sought after qualification these days, there is no decrease in the popularity of commerce. One major advantage with commerce is that one doesn't have to spend a lot for studying this subject whereas courses in engineering, medicine, architecture etc. require huge financial cost, more so at private institutions. However as in case of any subject, you should choose commerce only if you find the subject interesting and have an aptitude for it.

Commerce can be chosen as stream of study at 10+2 level. If you have been a student of science, you may take admission to a B.Com course after completing 12th standard. Admission to a commerce course is mostly merit based. Your score in the previous examination will be taken into account to determine your entry to the course. You are not required to go through tests like JEE or NEET needed for entry to many engineering, medical and few other professional courses.

Commerce is mainly concerned with trade and business activities such as sale of goods and services by producer to retailer and the end user. As a commerce student, you will be studying accounting principles, economics, business/investment strategies and topics like these. The subject will enable you to prepare balance sheet, trading account, profit and loss statements and various other statements depicting the financial health of a business. You will also learn use of computers in business accounting.

To gain entry to a commerce based career you should have at least a graduate degree in the subject usually known as B.Com. It takes three years to complete this degree. After becoming a commerce graduate, you have a number of options. You may go for Postgraduation in Commerce (M.Com) which will take another two years. Even if you decide not to pursue M.Com, you have a number of options for further studies as explained below.

Management: Those who are keen to grow into a business management professional, a Post graduate degree/diploma in Management makes a logical choice. In many respects students of commerce will find the course familiar and easy to understand. The course you choose should be full time with duration of two years and recognized by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE). You will be required to choose a specialization in the course. Though most commerce students go for specialization in finance, considering one's liking one may choose from other options like marketing, operations, HR, information technology etc. New specializations like business analytics is also available at few institutes. Law: To pursue a bachelor's degree in law (L.L.B.) you should already be graduate. Your B.Com qualification can be a gateway for a degree in law leading to a legal career. You may choose from 3 year graduate degree programme conducted at Colleges, Universities and law Schools/Universities. You may start working/pursuing legal practice immediately thereafter but have options to go for post graduation (L.L.M.) or take up a specialized course in law such as corporate law, cyber law, etc.

Computer Applications: Many students think that only those who have earlier studied computer or information science can join M.C.A., an acronym for Master of Computer Applications. While commerce graduates are not eligible to apply for M.E. or M.Tech.in computer science, M.C.A is a viable option for them. With knowledge of commerce and computers such students can take up a high end career in business computing, software development etc.

Chartered Accountancy: This course is conducted and regulated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). For this course, it is not necessary to join any College or University on a full time basis. As decided by ICAI, the course is a combination of self learning, contact classes and practical training. It can be joined after 10+2 and passing common proficiency test conducted by ICAI. The course is divided into two parts- Intermediate and Final. After completing Final, you may become a member of ICAI which helps in placement of its students. Bachelor in Commerce course can be pursued with CA course and many students go for both together.

There is another route to become a CA. Commerce Graduates/Post-Graduates with minimum 55% marks and other Graduates/Post-Graduates with 60% marks may enroll with the institute for intermediate course first. After completion of this they have to complete practical training and articleship. By completing the final examination the candidate can enroll as a member of ICAI and is designated as a chartered accountant.

Cost Accountancy: This is similar to CA qualification, though the course content is largely different. This course is conducted and regulated by the Institute of Cost Accountants of India which was previously known as Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India. It is suggested to compare the curriculums of Chartered Accountancy and Cost Accountancy and then decide which is more aligned with your career choice.

Chartered Financial Analyst: This is an international certification offered by CFA Institute based in the United States of America and is made available in countries all over the world including India. The CFA Program is meant to provide a strong foundation in advanced investment analysis and portfolio management skills. Graduates may enroll for this self-paced course with varied options. The course is divided into three parts of level I, II & III. Becoming a CFA, may open doors for global careers. With this qualification, you are most likely to have job opportunities in private organizations.

Company Secretary: Company Secretary is also a popular career option for commerce students. The course is conducted by the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI). Candidates opting for this Course, after completing 10+2 in commerce or equivalent, have to undergo three stages of the course. These stages include Foundation Programme, Executive Programme and Professional Programme. Those who join after passing graduation have to undergo only two stages- Executive and Professional. For both the groups Professional Programme can be pursued only after clearing the Executive Programme. The Company Secretary course also works on the model of CA course. However since 2014, ICSI has started a 3 years full time course for those having graduation with 50% marks or those who have passed the foundation course. This full time course is conducted at Navi Mumbai and has 50 seats in all.

All big and medium size companies have their accounts departments which absorb commerce graduates to maintain accounts and take care of other related works. There are many more careers suited for commerce students of which, a few have been described below:

Banking: As we all know banks in India, mostly government banks, are recruiting in large numbers and thus there is more possibility for jobseekers here. Banking is a major subject in the curriculum prescribed for Commerce students. Whenever the vacancies are advertised commerce graduates may apply for clerical and officers' position in public and private sector banks. While graduates from all disciplines are considered eligible to apply in public sector banks, in many cases Private and Cooperative Banks prefer candidates with commerce background though it may not be specifically mentioned in the advertisement for recruitment. In addition to mainstream banking, jobs are also available in merchant banking, investment banking etc.

Stockbroking: In India the business volume at stock exchanges is increasing as more and more people are investing in shares. Sale and purchase of shares happens through Securities & Exchange Board of India (SEBI) registered stockbrokers. You may join any such stockbroking firm where your job may be dealing with clients' orders, offering them advice; equity research etc. Such jobs are available mostly in big cities. Many banks also have their broking arms.

Auditing: There are many auditing firms which employ chartered accountants and commerce graduates to carry out audit work or assist their senior auditors. Audit of accounts is mandatory for banks and other listed companies and has to be conducted through recognized audit firms. While few audit firms operate at local or regional level, there are others which work on all India basis and globally.

Teaching: Those with M.Com qualification may opt for a teaching carrier also. They may choose to become a teacher for secondary or higher classes or with management education. Also there are many coaching institutes which help students to prepare for various accounting courses and certifications having input of commerce looking for such teachers.

Consulting: Those with a commerce background and preferably some experience have great opportunities in consulting. There are a number of areas for consulting viz. auditing (advising companies to prepare for audit), income tax, service tax, value added tax etc. With Goods and Services Tax (GST) already in place, there are more opportunities for consultants who specialize in this area. Financial planning is also an area of consulting for which you may choose to join Certified Financial Planner course. One may work as an independent consultant and also have the opportunity to join firms providing consultancy services such as Deloitte, Edelweiss etc. All the above careers are open to CAs, CFAs and Company Secretaries etc.

To make an excellent career in commerce, you should have a flair for numbers as most of the time you will be dealing with figures and numbers. Also you should have a logical and analytical bent of mind which will help you in analyzing balance sheets, profit / loss statements and other financial statistics. All these traits can be developed with sincere efforts and hard work.

medals at events by beating some of the world's best. Here is a look at some of the shining performers.

Mirabai Chanu

S. Mirabai Chanu displayed the most outstanding performance by an Indian at this Commonwealth Games. Chanu improved her personal record in 48 kg. and made a Commonwealth Record. Such was Chanu's domination in the event that she lifted 26 kgs more than her nearest rival. Chanu's performance was commendable because by the same effort she could have won at least a silver medal in the last Olympics games held at Rio. Chanu says that she is now focused for tougher challenges in the Asian Games and finally she wants to win a medal at Tokyo Olympics in 2020. Twenty-three year old Chanu belongs to Manipur.

Table Tennis

Traditionally Indian contingent has performed well in the events of shooting, weightlifting and wrestling. In Gold Coast too India won more than half the medals in these games. The medals tally reflected 16 medals in shooting (7 gold, 4 silver and 5 bronze), 9 medals in wrestling (5 gold medals, 2 silver and 2 bronze), and 12 medals in shooting (7 gold, 4 silver and 5 bronze medals).

But one new game that stood out for India was table tennis. Indian players won a record 8 medals in table tennis with 3 gold medals, 2 silver and 3 bronze. Ever since 1930 CWG, India has won a total of 12 medals until the last games, but in Gold Coast, India had 8 medals to show.

Manika Batra became the most successful Indian player at the Commonwealth Games in Gold Coast with 2 gold, one silver and one bronze medal in table tennis. Just like badminton where Indian players have challenged powerhouses like China and Japan, table tennis too is seeing a quick Indian ascendancy.

Young shooters - India's future is secured in shooting as India's young guns showed at Gold Coast.

First it was 16 year old Manu Bhaker who attracted attention with her gold medal winning effort. Bhaker pipped a more decorated shooter Heena Sidhu in the 10 metre air pistol for the gold medal. By doing so, Bhaker also became India's youngest gold medal winner at the Commonwealth Games. But her record could last merely a week. This time it was fifteen year old Anish Bhanwala who stunned all with his record breaking performance. Anish won the gold medal in 25 metre rapid fire pistol event and became India's youngest gold medal winner at CWG. India continued its rich haul in shooting with a total of 16 medals including 7 gold medals. Other than the youngsters, experienced shooters like Heena Sidhu and Tejaswini also won gold medals. Heena made up for her loss to Bhaker by winning the gold 25 m event while Tejaswini also scored big by winning a gold and a silver medal.

Badminton- Not long ago Indian players were considered underdogs in the game. India had occasional world champions like Prakash Padukone, Gopichand or highly impressive Saina Nehwal and P.V. Sindhu. But India was not looked upon as a team that would dominate games. That changed in Gold Coast. The Indian badminton contingent became the best team by winnings many as six medals.

Saina Nehwal came back to her gold medal winning ways by defeating P V Sindhu in the finals. Also for the first time Indians won gold in men's doubles as Satwik Sairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty came on top.

Kidambi Srikanth had to settle for a silver, but he was up against legendary Lee Chong Wei, one of the best shuttlers of all time.

The sixth medal was won by the duo of Ashwini Ponnappa and S. Reddy. Indian shuttlers will face tougher challenge in the Asian Games as they will be up against the Chinese and Japanese players.

M.C. Mary Kom

M C Mary Kom defied age and won yet another gold medal to prove her critics wrong. Mary Kom added another feather to her illustrious cap when she became the first woman boxer from India to win a gold medal at the Commonwealth Games. In what was her first Commonwealth Games and quite possibly her last, she made it one to remember as she put in a commanding performance to claim a unanimous 5-0 victory over Kristina O'Haara of Northern Ireland in the summit clash. The seasoned Mary Kom completely outplayed O'Hara, all of 22 years old, as she easily countered her longer reach.

Neeraj Chopra

In fact ever since the retirement of P.T. Usha, no athlete has come close to be a force at the world level. All that changed in 2016 when a young Neeraj Chopra created world record in javelin throw world championship at the junior level.

There was a huge expectation from Neeraj as world record in a track and field event by any Indian was a rarity. However Neeraj faced a lean patch after that as he moved into the seniors' competitions. People started to call him one day wonder. Neeraj Chopra chose a perfect setting in Gold Coast to set the record straight.

In a highly technical event of javelin throw, Chopra cleared 86.47 meters in the final to win gold medal in the event.

Reflection

Amongst all the good performances there was some disappointment in hockey where India failed to get a podium finish. India lost to England in the lay-off match for bronze medal and finished a disappointing fourth. India had won silver medal in hockey in the last two events and this result has broken hearts of Indian fans.

The Gold Coast event has given huge boost to Indian hopes in future multi-discipline events. But the real challenge is in the Asian Games and finally at the Olympics. These are the games where the competition is much tougher. But the silver lining for India is that performance in Commonwealth Games can be the basis of hope for India's good performance in the upcoming Asian Games and Olympics. Gold Coast has given India confidence to achieve greater heights in sports.

Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) Exam-2016

LEGAL APTITUDE

Follow the instructions carefully and choose the most appropriate option:

Question number 1-16 in this section consist of legal proposition(s) (hereinafter referred to as 'principle') and facts. Such principles may or may not be true in the real and legal sense, yet you have to conclusively assume them to be true for the purpose of this section. In other words, in answering the following questions. Further, you must not assume any facts other than those stated in the question. The objective of this section is to test your interest towards study of law, research aptitude and problem solving ability, even if the 'most reasonable conclusion' arrived at may be absurd or unacceptable for any other reason.

To answer a question, the given principle is to be applied to the given facts so as to arrive at most reasonable conclusion.

Q.1 Principle: Acceptance of proposal must be the exact mirror image of the proposal.

Facts: 'A' made a proposal to 'B' to sell a chair for Rs. 500. 'B' expressed his desire to buy the said chair for Rs. 400.

Ans.

1. It is not clear whether A made a proposal to 'B'.
2. 'B' has accepted the proposal of 'A'.
3. 'B' has not accepted the proposal of 'A'.
4. It is not clear whether 'B' has accepted the proposal of 'A' or not.

Q.2 Principle: Mere silence as to facts likely to affect the decision of a person to enter into a contract is not fraud.

Facts: 'A' sells to 'B' (A's daughter who is minor) a horse which 'A' knows to be unsound. 'A' says nothing to 'B' about the unsoundness of the horse.

Ans.

1. 'B' can take plea of fraud because she is minor.
2. There can not be a contract between a father and daughter.
3. 'A' has not committed fraud.
4. 'A' has committed fraud.

Q.3 Principle: A person, who is usually of unsound mind, but occasionally normal, may make a contract when he is not of unsound mind.

Facts: 'A' generally remains in the state of unsound mind and rarely becomes capable of understanding the things.

Ans.

1. 'A' can make a contract when normal.
2. 'A' can make a contract only for his own benefit.
3. 'A' can never make a contract.
4. 'A' can make a contract at any time whenever he pleases.

Q.4 Principle: In case where there is an infringement of legal right even without any actual loss or damage, the person whose right is infringed has a cause of action.

Facts: 'P' was wrongfully prevented by the Returning officer from exercising his vote in an assembly election. Still he ('P') brought an action claiming damages. Which of the following derivations is correct?

Ans.

1. 'P' would succeed in his action, as it is mandatory to cast vote.
2. 'P' would succeed in his action, as he was wrongfully prevented from exercising his legal right of voting in that election.
3. 'P' would not succeed in his action, as he did not suffer any loss in that election.

4. 'P' would not succeed in his action, as the candidate for whom he wanted to give his vote won the election.

Q.5 Principle: There are certain acts which, though harmful, are not wrongful in law; therefore, do not give legal right to bring action in law, to the person who suffers from such acts.

Facts: 'Prakash' has a rice mill. His neighbour, Shanti, sets up another rice mill and offers a tough competition to Prakash. As a consequence, Prakash's profits fall down. He brings a suit against Shanti for damages.

Ans.

1. Prakash can succeed in his claim as it is a case of actual damages.
2. Prakash cannot succeed in his claim for damages, as it is a case of damage without infringement of any legal right.
3. Prakash may succeed in his claim for damages, as it is a case of loss to his business.
4. Prakash can succeed in his claim for damages, as it is a case of damage as a result of infringement of his legal right.

Q.6 Principle: A condition to a contract can also be complied with after the happening of the event to which such a condition is attached.

Facts: 'A' promises to pay Rs. 5000 to 'B' on the condition that he shall marry with the consent of 'C', 'D' and 'E'. 'B' marries without the consent of 'C', 'D' and 'E', but obtains their consent after the marriage.

Ans.

1. 'B's marriage is not valid.
2. 'B' has not fulfilled the condition.
3. The condition is illegal
4. 'B' has fulfilled the condition.

Q.7 Principle: Killing is not murder if the offender, whilst deprived of the power of self-control by intense and sudden provocation, causes the death of the person who gave the provocation.

Facts: 'A', a man found his girl friend sleeping, in her own bed room, with another man named 'B'. 'A' did not do anything but went to his home, picked a gun and cartridges, returned to the girl friend's bed room with loaded gun but found the place empty. After fifteen days he saw his girl friend dining in a restaurant. Without waiting for even a second, 'A' fired five bullets at his girl friend who died on the spot.

Ans.

1. 'A' could have killed 'B' instead of his girl friend.
2. 'A' could have killed both 'B' and his girl friend.
3. 'A' did not kill his girl friend under intense and sudden provocation.
4. 'A' killed his girl friend under intense and sudden provocation.

Q.8 Principle: Whoever by words or writing conveys to others any imputation concerning any person's reputation is said to defame that person.

Facts: During a marriage ceremony, 'A' circulated a pamphlet saying that 'S', sister of the bride, is a thief, she has stolen the shoes of the bridegroom.

Ans.

1. 'A' has defamed the bridegroom.
2. 'A' defamed the bride.

3. 'A' has defamed 'S'.

4. 'A' did not defame 'S' as he never intended it.

Q.9 Principle: Causing of an effect partly by an act and partly by an omission is an offence.

Facts: 'A' confined her daughter 'D' in a room. 'A' also did not provide any food to her daughter 'D'. Consequently, 'D' died of starvation.

Ans.

1. 'A' committed the offence of confining 'D'.
2. 'A' committed the offence of causing death of 'D'.
3. 'A' committed no offence.
4. 'A' committed the offence of not providing food to 'D'.

Q.10 Principle: Whoever does not arrest the killer and report the matter to the concerned authorities commits an offence.

Facts: 'A', a woman, sees 'B', another woman, killing a third woman 'C'. 'A' neither attempted to arrest 'B' nor informed the concerned authorities.

Ans.

1. 'A' has not committed an offence.
2. 'A' has committed an offence.
3. 'B' has not committed an offence.
4. 'B' has committed an offence.

Q.11 Principle: False imprisonment is a tort (wrong) which means the total restraint of a person's liberty without lawful justification.

Facts: A part of a public road had been closed for spectators of a boat race. 'P' wanted to enter but he was prevented by 'D' and other policemen because he had not paid the admission fee. 'P' was able to enter the enclosure by other means but was unable to go where he wanted to go. The policemen refused access to where he wanted to go but allowed him to remain where he was or to go back. 'P' remained within the enclosure and refused to leave. Subsequently, 'P' sued 'D' for false imprisonment.

Ans.

1. It was a case of false imprisonment, but 'D' could not be made liable for it.
2. 'D' could not be made liable for false imprisonment as he has not touched him.
3. 'D' could be made liable for false imprisonment, as he did restrict P's movements.
4. 'D' could not be made liable for false imprisonment, as he did not totally restrict P's movements.

Q.12 Principle: An independent contractor is one who is employed to do some work of his employer. He is engaged under a contract for services. He undertakes to produce a given result, and in the actual execution of the work, he is not under the direct control or following directions of his employer. He may use his own discretion in execution of the work assigned. In general, an employer is not liable for the torts (wrongful acts) of his independent contractor. But, the employer may be held liable if he directs him to do some careless acts.

VISIT OF NEPAL PRIME MINISTER TO INDIA

Shantesh Kumar Singh

Prime Minister of Nepal Shri K.P. Oli recently visited India from April 6-9, 2018. According to the Nepali members of the Eminent Persons Group on Nepal India relations, this visit has helped resolve longstanding bilateral issues. As per PM Oli, the intention of his visit was to take relations between India and Nepal to a higher level, which are 'commensurate with the realities of the 21st Century'.

The present leadership took the positive step of not trying to negate India's role in the development process of Nepal, and took the step of choosing India as his first foreign destination after becoming Prime Minister.

Prime Minister Oli had extensive and positive talks with the Indian business community during the visit, both from the private as well as public sector. He sought major investments in harnessing Nepal's vast hydropower potential. He stressed that both India and Nepal had many things to offer each other, and the principles of interdependence should be based on equality and justice. He inaugurated the Integrated Check Post at Birgunj which is a very important aspect of connectivity and the other was the groundbreaking ceremony for the Motihari-Amlekhgunj cross border petroleum products pipeline along with Prime Minister Modi.

It was reiterated strongly that India Nepal relations will grow on the basis of equality, mutual trust, respect and benefit. The mottos 'Sabka Saath Sabka Vikas' (Together with all, development for all) and 'Samridhha Nepal Sukhi Nepali' (Prosperous Nepal, Happy Nepal) got reflected even in the 12 point Joint Statement that was issued during the visit, reiterating the nature of discussion that took place in between the two leaderships.

Three agreements were signed during the visit: 'India-Nepal: New Partnership in Agriculture', 'Expanding Rail Linkages: Connecting Raxaul in India to Kathmandu in Nepal' (which would connect Raxaul and Kathmandu with a new electrified rail line, with India's financial support), 'New Connectivity between India and Nepal through Inland Waterways'. In these three agreements, the stress was on the completion of the ongoing projects between India and Nepal. The leadership of both the countries while appreciating the progress that has been made in these projects also stressed on their speedy completion. Through the agreement on inland waterways, Nepal will get an extra connectivity to the sea, making landlocked Nepal 'water-linked' as well. In the agreement for strengthening partnership in agriculture, stress has been given on organic farming, animal husbandry, soil testing, agricultural research and agricultural education. On the agreement regarding construction of rail lines, it was decided that a preparatory feasibility study would be carried out within one year, after which funding modalities would be set up on the basis of the detailed project. These agreements laid the ground to find ways in making these visions possible in reality. Oli informed the Nepali press that he has also conveyed to PM Modi about Nepal's desire to see an early realisation of the open market provision of the bilateral power trade agreement, which was concluded between the two sides in 2014.

Construction of railway lines from Jayanagar to Janakpur and from Jogbani to Biratnagar are already underway and there are three more proposed rail routes to be laid, namely New Jalpaiguri-Kakarbhitta, Nautanwa-Bhairahawa and Nepalgunj Road-Nepalgunj.

Prime Minister Modi congratulated PM Oli on his electoral victory and hailed the people of Nepal for reposing their faith in the democratic process at the provincial and central levels. PM Oli also invited PM Modi to visit Nepal at the earliest.

The visit turned out to be significant. Both the leaderships stressed on building on their civilizational and religious linkages when they vowed to develop their Ramayana and Buddhist circuits. They also stressed on increasing cooperation in the areas of education, health and skill development. Discussions were also held on matters of energy banking and new transmission lines. In a press statement after returning to Nepal, PM Oli stated that he had raised Nepal's rising concerns about the alarming scale of trade deficit and stressed the need for implementing measures to expand Nepal's export.

Through this visit, India and Nepal tried exploring ways to boost economic and investment partnership, including in the areas of connectivity and capacity building. The visiting leadership stressed on trust building and respect for sovereign decisions taken by Nepal to work with all its neighbours.

It needs to be kept in mind that Nepal continues to go through political evolution. The India factor will remain to be one of the main issues in Nepal's domestic as well as foreign policy matters.
